

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Aircraft Maintenance Technician

Current Occupant:

Department Number:

Department Name: Maintenance

Position Reports To: Director of Maintenance

Last Revised: 1-26-2022

Summary:

The Maintenance Technician will work with the Director of Maintenance in being responsible for maintaining the airworthiness and quality pedigree of our managed fleet of business aircraft.

Purpose:

In an effort to better serve our clients, Vaerus Aviation is seeking an Aircraft Maintenance Technician to join our team. You'll serve our clients by maintaining the dispatch reliability, value, and usability of their aircraft. We are looking for an individual that is a self-starter and can manage projects to completion.

What You Will Do In Your Role

- Ensure that Client aircraft are maintained in a safe and airworthy condition that meets or exceeds all applicable standards and regulations
- Perform troubleshooting, inspection and diagnoses of maintenance issues involving aircraft avionics and electrical systems
- Remove and/or disassemble defective parts; components and perform necessary functional and operational tests

Aircraft Maintenance Technician

- Complete all necessary maintenance records and paperwork required by FAA and company policy
- Perform maintenance, preventive maintenance and inspections that conform to the standards established by the Company, regulations, and industry best practices to achieve the highest reliability goals
- Post flight aircraft to include debriefing with flight crews
- Participates In the Safety Management System

Qualifications:

The ideal candidate will possess the following qualifications and skills.

Requirements:

- 2 + years' experience working as an Airframe & Powerplant mechanic
- Current Airframe & Powerplant certificate
- Basic set of hand tools, power tools and measuring equipment necessary to perform job assignments
- Valid driver's license
- High school diploma

What Will Put You Ahead

- 2 + years' experience in Line Avionics/electrical troubleshooting and installation
- 5+ or more years' experience working as an A&P
- Knowledge of and experience with maintenance of corporate aircraft
- Knowledge of pertinent technical reference materials (maintenance manuals, IPCs, Service Bulletins, structural repair manuals, engineering drawings, AD's, etc.
- Challenger 300, CE560XLS, Phenom 100, Gulfstream G150 and PC-12 experience
- Challenger 300, CE560XLS, Phenom 100, Gulfstream G150 and PC12 aircraft and systems specific training
- Hold a current Inspection Authorization (IA)
- A&P Technical School Education
- Associate degree or higher

Benefits:

Vaerus Aviation, Inc offers full employee benefits

- Blue Cross Health & Dental - $500 deductible

Aircraft Maintenance Technician

- 401K Retirement with matching up to 6%
- Vacation
- Flex schedule
- Cell phone reimbursement
- EAP
- Up to $15,000.00 relocation assistance through the Greater Topeka Partnership.
<https://choosetopeka.com/apply/>

Next Steps:

Candidates who are interested in this position should take the following steps:

1. Email cover letter, resume, and references to careers@vaerusaviation.com